TO THE PARTIES AND TO THEIR ATTORNEYS OF RECORD:

Defendants City of Palos Verdes Estates (“City”) and Chief of Police Jeff Kepley (“Kepley”) (collectively, “City Defendants”) hereby respectfully submit the following Separate Statement of Uncontroverted Facts in support of their Motion for Summary Judgment or, in the Alternative, Summary Adjudication.

Defendant's Statement of	Evidence in Support of Statement of
Uncontroverted Facts	Uncontroverted Facts
1. Before the age of 20, Spencer visited Lunada Bay on four or five occasions. He never experienced intimidation, vandalism, or any other harmful act.	1. October 11, 2016 Deposition of Plaintiff Cory Eldon Spencer (“Spencer Deposition”), 60:10-61.14.
2. After age 20, but before January 2016, Spencer visited Lunada Bay another four or five times. No individual approached him or spoke to him, but he “believes” he experienced localism on one of the visits because there was “a group of guys at their local spot being locals”.	2. Spencer Deposition, 82:19-84:3.
3. On January 29, 2016, Spencer decided to surf at Lunada Bay with a group of other surfers.	3. Spencer Deposition, 75:17-76:5.
4. Prior to the January 29, 2016 visit, Spencer emailed Chief Kepley and a Police Captain to request extra	4. Spencer Deposition, 78:3-79:8.

police patrols during his visit to Lunada Bay.
5. Extra police patrols were provided.	5. Spencer Deposition, 125:22-127:15, 193:20-194:17.
6. On January 29, 2016, Spencer recalls an unidentified individual telling him "You can't surf here kook."	6. Spencer Deposition, 98:5-100:6.
7. Spencer also recalled statements like "How many other places did you pass to get here to surf?" and "Why don't you fucking go home, you fucking kook."	7. Spencer Deposition, 102:12-103:3.
8. Another unidentified individual made similar comments.	8. Spencer Deposition, 103:21-104:24.
9. In the water, Spencer testified that an unidentified LBB Defendant crossed surf boards with him and left a half-inch cut on his right wrist.	9. Spencer Deposition, 106:17-107:6.
10. Spencer believed the incident was intentional, but the purported LBB Defendant claimed that Spencer was paddling in the sun glare and that he had not seen Spencer.	10. Spencer Deposition, 109:10-22.

	11. Spencer claimed to be fearful, but continued to surf at least one more wave before leaving the water because he was "getting a little hypothermic" and his wrist was bleeding.	11. Spencer Deposition, 110:9-24; 114:24-115:14.
	12. Spencer's companion continued to surf.	12. Spencer Deposition, 115:2-5.
	13. Upon returning to the top of the Lunada Bay bluff, Spencer encountered five or six police officers, three police vehicles, and a motorcycle.	13. Spencer Deposition, 130:23-132:15.
	14. Spencer approached the police officers to thank them for showing up and to express his appreciation. He also told a police officer about his incident, including stating "[t]he guy is going to claim sun glare and whatnot" caused the collision	14. Spencer Deposition, 125:22-127:15.
	15. Spencer, a police officer himself, did not tell the police officer that what happened was a crime.	15. Spencer Deposition, 111:5-112:1; 279:2-280:14; 128:4-17.
	16. Spencer did not ask for a police investigation or follow up on the matter.	16. Spencer Deposition, 125:22-127:15.

	17. After January 29, 2016, Spencer never communicated to anyone at the City about the incident.	17. Spencer Deposition, 132:25-134:11.
	18. Christopher Taloa testified that the City police "ha[s] been nothing but good to me. They have been there for us and I am so thankful and grateful on that aspect in that matter."	18. January 5, 2017 Deposition of Christopher Taloa, 303:19-25
	19. Spencer returned to Lunada Bay in February not to surf, but to observe for incidents, as well as to watch the other surfers' property.	19. Spencer Deposition, 137:16-138:5.
	20. Spencer again contacted the Police Department about his planned trip and remembers seeing two or three police vehicles and two patrolmen and a sergeant on this date.	20. Spencer Deposition, 139:2-140:2; 184:13-185:6.
	21. Spencer remembers unidentified individuals (some driving by and some standing on the bluffs) calling him "kook" and asking "what are you doing?"	21. Spencer Deposition, 142:24-144:19.

	22. Spencer recognized Defendant Blakeman, who stood between 5 and 50 feet away filming him and the other surfers.	22. Spencer Deposition, 143:13-144:16.
	23. Spencer encountered no other action that he viewed as harassment or violence.	23. Spencer Deposition, 146:18-19.
	24. On March 4, 2016, Spencer emailed Chief Kepley to thank him and the Police Department for providing the extra police patrols.	24. Spencer Deposition, 158:9-159:14; 160:7-12; Spencer Deposition, Exhibit 42.
	25. In subsequent months, Spencer visited Lunada Bay between three to five times.	25. Spencer Deposition, 170:9-24.
	26. Spencer observed unidentified individuals slowly drive by while using cell phones and then later observed more unidentified individuals showing up. However, Spencer confirmed that nothing happened on these subsequent visits.	26. Spencer Deposition, 173:5-174:14.
	27. Spencer does not recall any City police officer ever asking him where he lived.	27. Spencer Deposition, 305:17-23.

	28. Reed's first visit to Lunada Bay was on January 6, 2016.	28. October 24, 2016 Deposition of Diana Milena Reed ("10/24/16 Reed Deposition"), 104:7-105:6.
	29. Reed was there for two hours and no one harassed, intimidated or otherwise caused her or her property harm.	29. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 108:22-109:19.
	30. On January 29, 2016, Reed returned to Lunada Bay to surf with her boyfriend.	30. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 101:22-103:18.
	31. Unidentified individuals in automobiles drove around Reed's vehicle and yelled "kooks", "you can't surf here" and profanities at her. Other unidentified individuals videotaped her.	31. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 119:25-121:1; 129:18-23; 130:8-14.
	32. After a descending to the beach, an unidentified individual purportedly called her a "whore" and then returned to yell profanities at them. A police officer walked over and asked her what was going on. Reed described the incident and he inquired whether she wanted to file a police report, which she did.	32. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 130:17-25; 134:5-24.

33. The police detained a suspect but informed Reed that because they did not overhear the words yelled, they could not arrest the individual.	33. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 135:14-25.
34. The police counseled Reed on filing a citizen's arrest, including the possible civil ramifications if she were found wrong in making the arrest.	34. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 135:14-136:17; 141:3-11.
35. The police told Reed that the outcome would be the same whether she filed a police report or undertook a citizen's arrest (absent the civil liability exposure).	35. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 135:14-136:17.
36. Reed did not know whether the police officer asked where she was from.	36. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 138:19-139:3.
37. On February 5, 2016, Reed returned to Lunada Bay.	37. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 146:11-20.
38. Reed could not recall whether police were present, but did remember her boyfriend surfed without incident.	38. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 154:24-155:18; 156:16-17.
39. On February 13, 2016, Reed returned to Lunada Bay.	39. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 156:23-157:5.

	40. Reed could not recall the specific chain of events, but remembers “various profanities of various instances”.	40. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 167:10-168:2.
	41. Reed also recalled a middle-aged male and teenage boy filming her and her boyfriend, attempting to block their path, and telling them they were “done”.	41. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 167:10-168:2.
	42. At the base of the Lunada Bay bluff, Reed was approached by Defendants Blakeman and Johnston. Reed testified they “rushed” her in a hostile manner and asked whether she wanted a beer. Defendant Blakeman got close to her face and filmed her. Defendant Johnston “opened a can of beer in a way that sprayed on [her] arm and camera.”	42. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 170:5-173:17.
	43. Defendant Johnston also acted in a sexual manner toward her and another woman by “grunting and making – making moans and noises resembling [ ] an orgasm. He was	43. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 177:14-178:2.

thrusting and rubbing his torso in a sexual manner.” Reed asked why she was being filmed and the alleged response was because she was sexy. Defendant Johnston allegedly told her he’s “big enough to get the job done” while grunting and moaning.
44. Reed attempted to call the police, but was unable to receive cell reception.	44. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 175:8-15; October 25, 2016 Deposition of Diana Milena Reed (“10/25/16 Reed Deposition”) 203:7-12.
45. Reed believes Defendant Johnston, while changing out of his wetsuit, intentionally permitted the towel wrapped around him to open such that he exposed his penis.	45. 10/25/16 Reed Deposition, 358:18-360:23.
46. Reed returned to the top of the bluff and approached a police officer to explain what had occurred.	46. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 181:16-183:12; 10/25/16 Reed Deposition, 216:20-25; 218:15-220:4.
47. The police officer listened and then escorted Reed back down the bluff to identify the men. They were gone.	47. 10/24/16 Reed Deposition, 181:16-183:12.

53. The Police Department sent a police report to the District Attorney, who declined to press criminal charges.	53. Kepley Deposition, 55:9-56:11; 201:11-24.
54. Reed returned to Lunada Bay at least twice since February 13, 2016.	54. 10/25/16 Reed Deposition, 247:22-248:4.
55. Reed claims to have been harassed on each visit, but does not recall particulars beyond being called a "bitch", being photographed and recorded, and told she should not be there and to leave. She did not recall whether she reported any of these incidents.	55. 10/25/16 Reed Deposition, 248:5-8; 251:2-252:7; 259:7-18.
56. Reed recalls that on at least one other subsequent visit she encountered no harassment.	56. 10/25/16 Reed Deposition, 259:19-260:11.
57. A representative of CPR submitted a declaration in support of Plaintiffs' motion for class certification; however, that declaration did not allege any harm specific to the declarant or CPR.	57. Declaration of Christopher D. Glos ("Glos Decl."), ¶ 9; Glos Decl., Exhibit H.

58. City Municipal Code section 9.16.030 prohibits blocking the access to any City beach. It provides:  A. No person shall stand, sit, lie, or congregate on any path, trail, or other way providing access to or from any beach in such a manner as to interfere with or impede the free flow of travel along such accessway.  B. Unless the prior consent of the city is first received, no person shall place, throw, leave, keep or maintain any object of any type upon any path, trail, or other way which provides access to or from any beach.	58. Declaration of Vickie Kroneberger ("Kroneberger Decl."), ¶¶ 1-4; Kroneberger Decl., Exhibit A.
59. City Municipal Code section 9.16.010 also requires surfers (and others) to engage in surfing with due regard to others, including but not limited to "accommodating other persons utilizing the beach and/or water to the extent feasible."	59. Kroneberger Decl., ¶¶ 1-4; Kroneberger Decl., Exhibit A.

60. City police officers are directed to enforce the municipal code.	60. Kepley Deposition, 143:13-18.
61. The City has an anti-harassment policy.	61. November 18, 2016 Deposition of Anton Dahlerbruch ("Dahlerbruch Deposition"), 45:11-16.
62. The City takes allegations of intimidation very seriously and responds to it.	62. Dahlerbruch Deposition, 155:25-156:3.
63. Chief Kepley joined the Police Department in June 2014.	63. Kepley Deposition, 33:18-20.
64. Prior to employment Chief Kepley did not know anyone at the City or in the Police Department other than a former lieutenant, who had been deceased for a number of years, and he had never lived in the City.	64. Kepley Deposition, 19:8-20:1.
65. In or around May 2015, Chief Kepley became aware of a website published video that showed several reporters being harassed at Lunada Bay. He initiated a criminal investigation and assigned extra police patrols to patrol Lunada Bay.	65. Kepley Deposition, 29:22-32:14.

66.	66. Kepley Deposition, 32:4-14.
Extra police patrols continued from approximately May 2015 and remained in place at the time of Plaintiffs Spencer and Reed alleged personal incidents at Lunada Bay.	67. Kepley Deposition, 97:14-24; 98:20-99:7; 109:21-110:12; 111:10-12.
67. There have been more than 400 or 500 police patrols of Lunada Bay, whereby a police officer parks at the top of the bluff, exits a police vehicle and observes the surf below for any criminal activity, as well as to show a police presence and provide a deterrent.	68. Kepley Deposition, 99:8-16.
68. In addition, police officers descended the bluff and patrolled the beach.	69. Kepley Deposition, 51:6-52:5.
69. Chief Kepley educated himself on the rumors and claims that localism at Lunada Bay had existed for as many as 50 years.	70. Dahlerbruch Deposition, 69:22-70:7.
70. The City spent a significant amount of time before, during and after the video posting to understand localism, including collecting information from various sources and holding meetings.

71. Chief Kepley learned that although the Police Department had worked for years to address and combat localism, the public perception was that it was tolerated.	71. Kepley Deposition, 52:6-53:21.
72. On May 15, 2015, Chief Kepley sent a memorandum to the City Mayor and Council regarding localism in Lunada Bay.	72. Kepley Deposition, 210:2-17.
73. Chief Kepley identified measures taken by the PVE Police Department in the preceding past several years, including: (1) extra patrols with uniformed officers on high surf days; (2) utilizing ATVs to patrol the cliff's edge; (3) having officers dress in plain clothes and drive unmarked vehicles to observe and interact with people along the cliffs and bluffs; (4) undercover operations; and (5) boat patrols in Lunada Bay.	73. 74. Chief Kepley spoke about creating a police presence on the water by replacing the City's old ocean patrol boat and establishing Parkland Rangers as another resource to patrol and maintain a visible presence.	74. Kepley Deposition, 210:2-212:3; Kepley Deposition, Exhibit 25.
75. Although Chief Kepley had not been employed at the City until June 2014, he was in 2015 and intended to change the perception, address localism, protect the public and ensure access to Lunada Bay remained open and free of harassment.	75. Kepley Deposition, 51:6-53:21.
76. Prior to Plaintiffs' incidents, Chief Kepley directed the police captains to actively engage the surfers to express the City's position that Lunada Bay was a public beach, everyone was expected to be civil, and the City would not tolerate the type of harassment seen in the published video.	76. Kepley Deposition, 33:25-34:13.
77. Prior to Plaintiffs' incidents, the Police Department began to make a number of regular contacts with surfers	77. Kepley Deposition, 35:10-37:13.
